If your sales team needs this kind of edge, "The Art of Selling Through Stories" provides the breakthrough you've been looking for. Shift your sales team away from the uncomfortable bulldog tactics of the past, to a new, relaxed, and scientifically proven methodology that consistently multiplies results, guaranteed.

STRUCTURE

Matthew presents the science of storytelling as documented by Harvard and Stanford researchers, and explains why story is fundamental to a winning sales process. Attendees will hear about Matthew's real-life clients – some painfully introverted, some needing to get hyped up on coffee to make the day bearable, some with sales in their DNA and thinking they were already doing everything right. All of them not only lowered their stress around selling and learned to love the process, but also increased closure rates as much as 400 – 1000%. All it takes is a simple, proven process that Matthew has perfected over the last decade.

1. Learn the exceptional power of story, and its use in gaining trust and credibility, sidestepping objections, reducing sales cycles, increasing closure rates, and creating a sales culture of teamwork and excitement.
2. Discover the secret to crafting laser-sharp true stories that make prospects say, "I want that!"
3. Stop being seen as a commodity – get prospects to view you as the only logical choice, regardless of price.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This session is designed for sales VP's, directors, and managers looking for a proven way to transform their teams from stressed and high-pressure to relaxed and authentic – while massively boosting profits, of course. Matthew has delivered this presentation to a range of audiences from multinational conglomerates such as Oracle, to commercial real estate sales firms such as Colliers International, to small businesses conferences and organizations.
